1 Ready or not, early vans are on the rise! Randy Back's two-toned '68 Chevy from Pataskala had acres of straight sheetmetal, Cragars and inline six power.

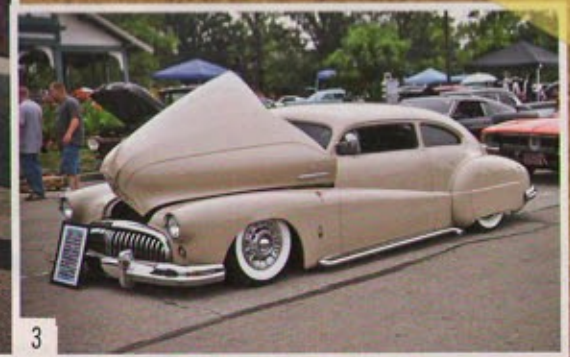

2

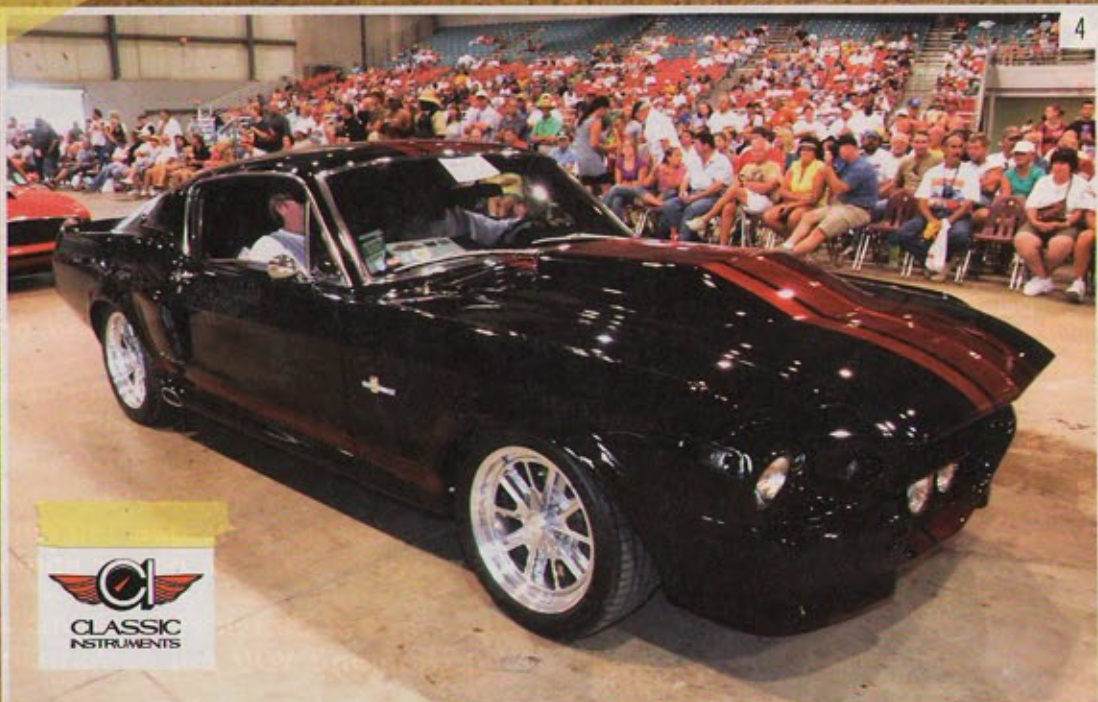

2 Zack and Brenda Straits did an incredible job with their first frame off restoration on this '61 Ford Starliner. They've owned it 10 years, working on it over the last 7. It's running a three-deuce, 450hp 390 and a black and red interior. They won the "Homebuilt Heaven (sponsored by Timberland Pro)" pick.

3 Kim and Mary Neal's chopped and lowered '48 Buick from Mason, WV has Caddy caps, frenched lights, lakes pipes, fender skirts, and a side-tilting hood.

4 Winner of the "Classic Trophy Dash (sponsored by Classic Instruments)" pick was Scott and Lauren Taylor. Their '68 Mustang features an aluminum Shelby 490, a full Art Morrison chassis, 17" Shelby 427 wheels and Carroll Shelby signature series gauges from Classic.

5 Dan Stallman's Viper Red '41 Ford pickup from East Sparta is all steel with 350/700R4 power.

6 Clinton Stratton Jr's chopped '52 Ford F1 from Louisville, KY was parked in the Homebuilt Heaven area. It features a '35 Chevy, suicide doors and a custom interior.
